

City of Memphis

PROCLAMATION BY THE MAYOR

WHEREAS, Memphis seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation awareness effort; and

WHEREAS, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013; and

WHEREAS, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with local businesses, contractors, environmental groups and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation; and

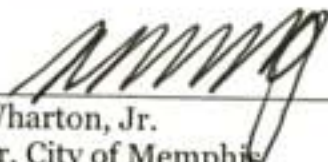

WHEREAS, Supply Line and The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on October 27, 2010, at 3440 Lamar Ave to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers

NOW, THEREFORE, I A C WHARTON, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, October 27, 2010 as

WATER CONSERVATION DAY

and encourage the people of Memphis to participate in The Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the city of Memphis to be affixed this 27th day of October 2010.

A C Wharton, Jr.
Mayor, City of Memphis

Office of the Mayor
Hattiesburg, Mississippi

roclamation

Water Conservation Week

WHEREAS, Hattiesburg seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation awareness effort.

WHEREAS, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013.

WHEREAS, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with local businesses, contractors, environmental groups and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation.

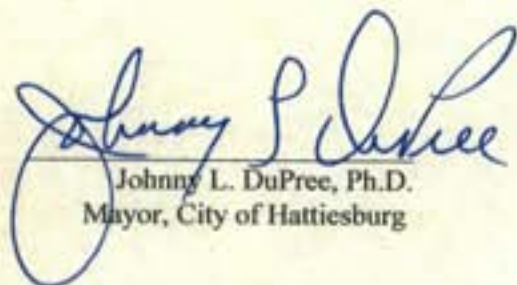

WHEREAS, Coburn's and The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on October 21, 2010, at 5271 Old Hwy 11 to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers.

THEREFORE, I, Johnny L. DuPree, Mayor of the City of Hattiesburg, Mississippi, do hereby proclaim the October 21, 2010 as encouraging local citizens to participate in The Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

WATER CONSERVATION WEEK

Johnny L. DuPree, Ph.D.
Mayor, City of Hattiesburg

PROCLAMATION FOR WATER CONSERVATION DAY OBSERVANCE

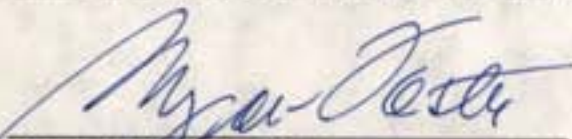

Whereas, the City of Hammond seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation awareness effort.

Whereas, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States, including Louisiana, by 2013.

Whereas, businesses, contractors, and environmental groups nationwide are partnering with residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaigns to promote water conservation.

Whereas, public events are being hosted locally and nationwide on October 19, 2010, to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers.

Be it resolved that Hammond proclaims October 19 as Water Conservation Day, encouraging local citizens to recognize conservation as a long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

Mayson H. Foster, Mayor
City of Hammond

Proclamation

WHEREAS, The City of West Monroe seeks to inform our residents and businesses about and engage them in long-term water conservation efforts and awareness, as evidenced by the multi-million dollar SPARTA Aquifer re-use project we currently have under development; and,

WHEREAS, Water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of the United States by 2013; and,

WHEREAS, The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with West Monroe businesses, contractors, environmental groups and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation; and,

WHEREAS, A public event will be hosted by Coburn's Supply and The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour on October 11, 2010 at 1300 Natchitoches Road, in West Monroe to create awareness of and provide information on the issues related to water use and conservation through the use of water-efficient and money-saving products; and,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Dave Norris, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Mayor, do hereby proclaim Monday, October 11, 2010 as:

"WATER CONSERVATION DAY"

in the City of West Monroe, Louisiana, and encourage our citizens to inform themselves and participate in water conservation efforts as demonstrated by The Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign in order to ensure a continuing, adequate and affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

Signed and presented this _____ 8th _____

Mayor

day of _____ October _____, 2010

CITY OF ORLANDO

Proclamation

WHEREAS, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013; and

WHEREAS, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with local businesses, contractors, environmental groups and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation; and

WHEREAS, Harry Warren Inc and The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on October 13, 2010 at 1400 N Orange Blossom Trail to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BUDDY DYER, Mayor of the City of Orlando, hereby do proclaim October 13, 2010 as

"WATER CONSERVATION DAY"

in the city of Orlando, encouraging local citizens to participate in The Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereunto have set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Orlando to be affixed this 1st day of October 2010.

Louisville
Office of the Mayor
Proclamation

Greetings to whom all these presents shall come, know ye that

September 7, 2010

is hereby proclaimed in Louisville, Kentucky to be

Water Conservation Day

and I urge all citizens to observe this special recognition.

Done in Louisville, Commonwealth of Kentucky, this the Seventh day of September, 2010.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading 'Jerry E. Abramson', written over a horizontal line.

Jerry E. Abramson, Mayor