

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The City of Shelton, seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation effort, and

WHEREAS, The Environmental Protection Agency projects a severe water shortage in most regions of the United States by 2013, and

WHEREAS, The City of Shelton is partnering with the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour, local businesses, environmental officials, and residents in a locally-based media campaigning to promote water conservation, and

WHEREAS, There will be a public event on May 27 at 740 River Road in Shelton, by Shelton Winnelson and the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour to create awareness of the use of water-efficient and money-saving products.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Mark A. Lauretti, proclaim May 27 as Water Conservation Day, encouraging citizens to participate in the Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign, to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all citizens.

This is issued under my hand and official seal of the City of Shelton.

May 27, 2010
Shelton, CT

Mark A. Lauretti
Mark A. Lauretti
Mayor

CITY OF SOUTH PORTLAND

THOMAS S. COWARD
Mayor

JAMES H. GAILEY
City Manager

SUSAN M. MOONEY
City Clerk

SALLY J. DAGGETT
Jensen Baird Gardner & Henry

RESOLUTION FOR WATER CONSERVATION DAY OBSERVANCE

May 10, 2010

District One
THOMAS S. COWARD

District Two
PATRICIA A. SMITH

District Three
ROSEMARIE DE ANGELIS

District Four
MAXINE BEECHER

District Five
JAMES HUGHES

At Large
LINDA R. BOUDREAU

At Large
THOMAS E. BLAKE

Whereas, the City of South Portland has experienced periodic shortages in freshwater supplies during peak demand periods and seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation effort.

Whereas, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013, with Maine among the 36 states identified as an area targeted for supply problems.

Whereas, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with the City of South Portland, in conjunction with local businesses, contractors, environmental officials and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation.

Whereas, The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on Monday, May 10 at 50 Postal Way in South Portland to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers.

Be it resolved that the City of South Portland proclaims May 10 as Water Conservation Day, encouraging local citizens to participate in the Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

Mayor Tom Coward

5/5/2010
Date

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

City of Middletown

CONNECTICUT 06457

SEBASTIAN N. GIULIANO

MAYOR

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the City of Middletown, Connecticut, seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation effort; and

WHEREAS, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013; and

WHEREAS, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with the City of Middletown, in conjunction with local businesses, contractors, environmental officials and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation; and

WHEREAS, Middlesex Supply and the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on May 25, 2010, at 180 Main St. Extension in Middletown to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers; and

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, THAT I, SEBASTIAN N. GIULIANO, Mayor of the City of Middletown do hereby proclaim, Tuesday May 25, 2010, as in the City of Middletown and encourage local citizens to participate in the Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

WATER CONSERVATION DAY

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and cause the seal of the City of Middletown to be affixed this 24th day of May, 2010.

ATTEST:

A large, stylized handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Sebastian N. Giuliano", is written over the "ATTEST:" line.

SEBASTIAN N. GIULIANO
Mayor

RESOLUTION FOR WATER CONSERVATION DAY OBSERVANCE

June 21, 2010

Whereas, the City of Harrisburg has experienced periodic shortages in freshwater supplies during peak demand periods and seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation effort.

Whereas, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013, with Pennsylvania among the 36 states identified as an area targeted for supply problems.

Whereas, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with the City of Harrisburg, in conjunction with local businesses, contractors, environmental officials and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation.

Whereas, YC Supply and the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on Monday, June 21 at 1851 UPS Drive in Harrisburg to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers.

Be it resolved that the City of Harrisburg proclaims June 21 as Water Conservation Day, encouraging local citizens to participate in the Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

Set Under My Hand and Seal this
Twenty-first Day of June, Annum
Two-Thousand and Ten

Mayor Linda D. Thompson

Proclamation

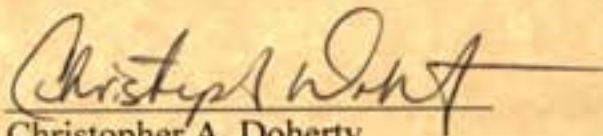

Water Conservation Day June 22, 2010

- WHEREAS, The City of Scranton has experienced periodic shortages in freshwater supplies during peak demand periods and seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation effort; and
- WHEREAS, Water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of the United States by 2013, with Pennsylvania among the 36 states identified as an area targeted for supply problems; and
- WHEREAS, The American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with the City of Scranton, in conjunction with local businesses, contractors, Environmental officials and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation; and
- WHEREAS, Eastern Pennsylvania Supply Co. and the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on June 22, 2010 at 400 S. Washington Ave. to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water efficient and money saving products available to consumers;

Be it resolved that the City of Scranton proclaims June 22, as Water Conservation Day, encouraging local citizens to participate in the Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

Christopher A. Doherty
Mayor
June 22, 2010

City of Wilkes-Barre,
Pennsylvania

Office of the Mayor

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, the City of Wilkes-Barre has experienced periodic shortages in freshwater supplies during peak demand periods and seeks to engage residents and businesses in a long-term water conservation effort; and,

WHEREAS, water shortages are projected by the Environmental Protection Agency to become severe in most regions of United States by 2013, with Pennsylvania among the 36 states identified as an area targeted for supply problems; and,

WHEREAS, the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour is partnering with the City of Wilkes-Barre, in conjunction with local businesses, contractors, environmental officials and residents in a locally-based media and community engagement campaign to promote water conservation; and,

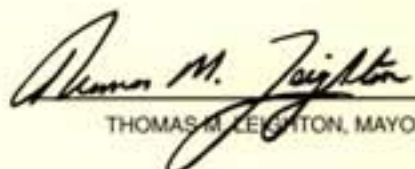

WHEREAS, Eastern Pennsylvania Supply Co. and the American Standard Responsible Bathroom Tour will host a public event on June 23, 2010, at 700 Scott St. to create awareness of the issues related to water use and the water-efficient and money-saving products available to consumers.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS RESOLVED THAT I,
THOMAS M. LEIGHTON, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF WILKES-BARRE,
do hereby proclaim June 23, 2010

"WATER CONSERVATION DAY"

in the City of Wilkes-Barre, and encouraging local citizens to participate in the Responsible Bathroom Tour campaign as part of the city's long-term strategy to ensure an adequate, affordable freshwater supply for all residents and businesses.

THOMAS M. LEIGHTON, MAYOR